

Cookies Policy | DeCorp Network

This Cookies Policy explains how DeCorp Network ("DeCorp", "we", "us", "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our websites, applications, and digital platforms ("Platform").

By continuing to browse or use the Platform, you consent to our use of cookies as described in this Policy, unless you disable them through your browser or cookie settings.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website.

They help us recognize your browser, improve user experience, analyze usage, and personalize content.

Cookies can be:

- Session cookies: deleted when you close your browser.
 - Persistent cookies: remain on your device for a set period.
 - First-party cookies: placed by DeCorp.
 - Third-party cookies: placed by external services we integrate with.

2. What Technologies Do We Use?

We may use multiple tracking technologies, including:

- Cookies
- Web beacons
- Pixels (e.g., Meta Pixel)
- Local storage
- Device fingerprinting

These tools help ensure the Platform functions properly and operates securely.

3. Types of Cookies We Use

3.1. Strictly Necessary Cookies

Required for the Platform to operate.

Without them, core features (authentication, security, navigation) may not work.

These cookies cannot be disabled.

3.2. Performance & Analytics Cookies

Used to measure traffic, usage patterns, and interactions with the Platform.

Examples include:

- Google Analytics
- Cloudflare Analytics

These cookies help us improve stability and optimize performance.

3.3. Functional Cookies

Enable enhanced features such as remembering preferences, localization, or user settings.

These cookies improve convenience and usability.

3.4. Marketing & Advertising Cookies

Used to deliver relevant ads and track marketing performance.

Examples include:

- Meta Pixel
- Google Ads tags
- Third-party retargeting tools

These cookies are optional and require user consent where required by law.

4. Why We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- operate and secure the Platform
- analyze user behavior
- remember user preferences
- improve performance and content
- support marketing and referral programs
- detect fraud and ensure compliance
- personalize user experience

Cookies allow us to deliver a more efficient and customized Platform.

5. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies are placed by third-party service providers, including:

- Analytics partners
- Ad networks
- Social media integrations
- Cloud and hosting providers
- Security and anti-fraud tools

We do not control these cookies directly.

Users should review the privacy policies of third-party services for more details.

6. Cookie Consent Management

Depending on your jurisdiction (GDPR/EU, CCPA/California, etc.), you may see a cookie banner or consent tool when accessing the Platform.

You may:

- Accept all cookies

- Reject optional cookies
- Customize cookie preferences
- Withdraw consent at any time

Your settings will be stored until you change or delete them.

7. How to Disable Cookies

You can manage or disable cookies by adjusting your browser settings.

Instructions for popular browsers:

- Chrome: Settings → Privacy and Security → Cookies
- Safari: Preferences → Privacy
- Firefox: Options → Privacy & Security
- Edge: Settings → Cookies and Site Permissions

Disabling certain cookies may impact functionality or limit access to parts of the Platform.

8. Data Retention

Cookie retention varies depending on type:

- Session cookies: deleted when session ends
- Persistent cookies: stored from 30 days to 24 months, depending on purpose
- Marketing cookies: retained as defined by third-party providers

Retention details for each cookie type are available upon request.

9. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time.

The latest version will always be available on this page with a new Effective Date.
